THE [Numb. 878.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, March 4, 1762.

Heads of Mr. PITT's Speech the firſt Day in Parliament.

HE began with a Defence of his own Conduct during his Adminiſtration, and added his Reaſons for reſigning the Seals.—He treated ſuch of his Aſſociates who had oppoſed a German War, as State Cowards and Political Miſers; affirmed that all our Advantages in all Parts of the World were owing to it; that it was his Opinion it ſhould be continued and vigorouſly purſued; that thoſe who talked ſo grudgingly of 20 Millions (Mr. Cuſt, Brother of the Speaker, who had juſt before-ſpoke againſt a German War, &c.) when thoſe Millions were to terminate a glorious War by a more glorious Peace, were fitter to calculate behind a Counter, than to direct the Meaſures of a great Kingdom.

He objected ſtrongly to the recalling our Troops from Germany, and declared that he would proteſt againſt it, tho' he ſhould ſtand ſingle in his Opinion.

That he ſhould not ſeek to ſkreen himſelf under the flimſy Covering of a Reſignation, but was ready to juſtify every Meaſure he had adviſed in the Proſecution of the War, and the Support of his Majeſty's Allies.——That he wiſhed the Parliament would call for all the Papers relative to the Spaniſh Affairs, which had a long Time robb'd him of many Hours of Reſt; but as he had determined not to loſe one Hour of Honour, he had withdrawn from Councils which he utterly renounced; that in or out of Place he ſhould always be happy to aſſiſt the King and his Adminiſtration with his Advice—when that Adminiſtration was formed; for at preſent there ſeemed to be none.——That tho' his Oath reſtrained him from divulging the Secrets of the Cabinet, he was yet at Liberty to declare his Converſation with the King, and that he would do hereafter.—That as France had publiſhed ſo erroneous an Account of the Negociation, he hoped our Rulers would, in Defence of their own and the Nation's Honour, give a true Narrative to the World; for that he averred, and for the Truth of his Averment, did appeal to the Spaniſh Miniſter himſelf, that no ſuch Memorial as ſtands inſerted in the French Narrative was ever delivered by that Gentleman.—That he looked upon himſelf as a private Man, and never wiſh'd to be replaced in his Office; certain he was, that he never would ſollicit it, and he believed it would never be offered him.—That he wiſhed to ſee the King's Meaſures carried on with Unanimity, and was happy in this Opportunity of returning to the Houſe, that the foreign Packets might carry to every Court the more authentic Accounts of a Parliamentary Harmony.

It was remarkable that not a ſingle perſonal Invective came from his Mouth, and that he defended himſelf both warmly and modeſtly, to the Satisfaction of many in the Houſe, and the utter Confuſion of others.—Mr. Greenville attempted to Anſwer him, oppoſed the calling for Papers, or examining any paſt Tranſactions.——But a general Buz in the Houſe ſoon ſilenced him.

LONDON, December 8.

In Contradiction to the firſt and ſecond Articles of the Britiſh Court's Anſwer to the Ultimatum of France, delivered by M. de Buſſy to Mr. Pitt the 17th of Auguſt laſt, the French Miniſtry have got the following Piece inſerted in the Hague Gazette.

Letter from the Marquis de Vaudreuil to the Duke de Choiſeuil, October 30, 1761.

MY LORD,

I HAVE read with Surprize, in the Hiſtorical Memorial of the Negociations of France and England, relative to Peace, what is imputed to me by the Engliſh on Occaſion of the Limits of Canada; and as there is nothing more falſe and chimerical than that Aſſertion, I muſt, my Lord, give you an Account of what paſſed on that Head between Mr. Amherſt and me.

I traced no Limits whatſoever, when I capitulated, and never expreſſed myſelf, in my Parleys with that General, but in the ſimple Terms of Canada. Seven or Eight Days after the Surrender of the Country, he ſent an Officer to demand of me inſtructive Charts concerning the Extent of that Colony; to which I anſwered in the Negative, becauſe they had been plundered with my Effects at Quebec, contrary to the Faith of the Capitulation of that Place; and that Officer having then ſhewn me a Map which he had about him, I denied the Limits marked in it, and verbally ſubſtituted others, which extended Louiſiana on one Side to the Carrying Place of the Miamis, which is the Latitude of the Lands whoſe Waters fall into the River Onabache, and on the Side as far as the upper Part of the River of the Illinois.

What I have the Honour to write to you, my Lord, is indiſputable: I am not afraid of the Engliſh producing any Proof of the contrary; becauſe there has been no Act ſigned, nor any Line drawn on this Subject. I am charged to give you Notice thereof, to prevent further Impoſitions in this Reſpect. I am, &c.

The Marquis de Vaudreuil.

A certain great Commoner, in his firſt Speech in Parliament, when a young Man, had Occaſion, ſeverely to attack the late Sir ROBERT WALPOLE. That unpopular Member heard him out with Temper, and then coolly gave for Anſwer, that whenever a young Puppy got entered among a Pack of Hounds, and fell upon a wrong Scent, he ought to be whipped in. The Rejoinder to this was thought to be at leaſt equally cutting——A young Puppy (ſaid the Orator) at his firſt Entrance among the Pack ought rather ſurely to ſtand excuſed, under ſuch a Circumſtance—but when an old Hound falls upon a wrong Scent, he undoubtedly deſerves to be hanged.

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE OF COMMONS to the KING; preſented on the 16th of November, 1761.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great-Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Majeſty the moſt humble and hearty Thanks of this Houſe, for your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

Permit us, at the ſame Time, to offer to your Majeſty our warmeſt Congratulations on the joyful and auſpicious Event of your Royal Nuptials, with a Princeſs deſcended from an illuſtrious Proteſtant Line, diſtinguiſhed by the moſt eminent Graces and Endowments, and worthy to be the Royal Partner of your Throne, by poſſeſſing every Virtue that can adorn it.

We beg leave alſo to expreſs our juſt Senſe of that affectionate Regard, which your Majeſty has ſhewn for your People, by conſulting, on this moſt important and intereſting Occaſion, as on every other, their Happineſs, and that of their Poſterity. And we aſſure your Majeſty, that with Hearts full of Gratitude for this ſignal Inſtance of your Royal Attention to the Welfare of your Subjects, and thoroughly ſenſible of the exalted Merit of your illuſtrious Conſort, your faithful Commons will not fail to make ſuch honourable and ample Proviſion, as may enable her to ſupport her Royal Dignity with proper Luſtre, in caſe ſhe ſhall ſurvive your Majeſty; for the long Continuance of whoſe Life we ſhall never ceaſe to offer up to the Divine Providence our moſt ardent Vows.

Allow us, Sir, to return our ſincere and humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for your tender Concern for the Proſperity of your People, in wiſhing to reſtore to them the Bleſſings of Peace; and to declare that we cannot too much admire that Humanity, ſo becoming your Royal Breaſt, which, amidſt the Succeſſes of your own Kingdoms, feels for the Calamities of other Nations.

We are fully perſuaded, that theſe beneficent Diſpoſitions, which induced your Majeſty to conſent to the Appointment of a Congreſs for a general Pacification, and to enter into a Negociation with France for a particular Peace, could not have failed of the deſired Effect, if the Enemy, influenced by the ſame Motives, had ſhewn the ſame good Intentions, and would have complied with ſuch Conditions as were requiſite for the Accompliſhment of that ſalutary Work.

We do moſt gratefully acknowledge your Majeſty's Vigilance and Firmneſs in not ſuffering the Hopes or Expectations of Peace to produce the leaſt Suſpence or Relaxation in the Exertion of your Arms. And we congratulate your Majeſty on thoſe happy Succeſſes, which, under the Good Providence of God, we muſt aſcribe to the Wiſdom and Vigour of your Majeſty's Meaſures; to which we owe the Reduction of Dominica, the Conqueſt of Belleiſle, atchieved with ſo much Reputation to the Britiſh Arms, and the Deſtruction of the Enemy's Power in the Eaſt-Indies, by the Acquiſition of Pondicherry, their laſt remaining Settlement of any Strength in thoſe Countries.

The wiſe and able Conduct of his Serene Highneſs Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, whereby he hath ſucceſſively defeated the Projects of the Enemy, and hath prevented their making that Progreſs, which from their ſuperior Numbers, they expected, together with that gracious Approbation, which your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to expreſs of the Valour of your Troops, cannot but give the higheſt Satisfaction to your faithful Commons: And they ſee, with juſt Admiration, the repeated Proofs, in every Campaign, of that unſhaken Reſolution, and of thoſe aſtoniſhing Efforts, which alone could have enabled your Majeſty's great Ally, the King of Pruſſia, to reſiſt the numerous Forces of his Enemies.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our intire Concurrence and Support in the moſt effectual Proſecution of the War, for the Intereſt and Advantage of theſe Kingdoms; and in maintaining, to the utmoſt of our Power, the good Faith and Honour of your Majeſty's Crown, and the Engagements entered into with your Allies; and that we are truly ſenſible, that the conſtant Care and Attention of your Majeſty to purſue the moſt vigorous Meaſures in every Part, where any ſucceſsful Impreſſion can ſtill be made upon the Enemy, are the only Means to attain that deſirable Object, an honourable and a laſting Peace.

We receive, with the deepeſt Gratitude, that moſt endearing Expreſſion of your Majeſty's unbounded Goodneſs and Affection towards this your native Country, in the ſolemn Declaration, which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to make, that as well in the Proſecution of the War as in the Concluſion of the Peace, no Conſideration whatever ſhall induce you to depart from the true Intereſts of theſe your Kingdoms, and from the Honour and Dignity of your Crown.

Your Majeſty may be aſſured, that your faithful Commons will chearfully grant ſuch Supplies, as the Nature and Extent of the ſeveral Services ſhall be found to require; firmly relying on your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Juſtice, that they will be applied with the ſtricteſt Oeconomy, and in ſuch a Manner as may moſt effectually Anſwer the great Ends for which they ſhall be granted.

We do, with great Truth, aſſure your Majeſty, that it is our moſt earneſt Deſire, that this firſt Parliament convened by your Royal Authority, may, by their Conduct, give your Majeſty a happy Proof of the Zeal, the Loyalty, and the Affection of your People.

Senſible of the difficult Criſis, in which we are aſſembled, we are determined to concur, with the greateſt Firmneſs and Unanimity, in whatever may contribute to the public Welfare, may tend to defeat the Views and Expectations of our Enemies, and may convince the World, that there are no Difficulties which your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Perſeverance, with the Aſſiſtance of your Parliament, cannot ſurmount.

The following is the ANSWER of His Majeſty to the ADDRESS of the Hon. Houſe of Commons.

GENTLEMEN,

I RETURN you my hearty Thanks for this very dutiful and affectionate Addreſs. The early Proofs of your moſt cordial Attachment to Me and My Family, upon the Occaſion of My Marriage, and the particular Regard and Attention which you expreſs for the Queen in a Matter that ſo nearly concerns Her, cannot but give Me the moſt ſenſible Satisfaction. The Aſſurances of your ſteady and vigorous Support muſt add the greateſt Weight to my Endeavours for the Public Good; and will be the ſureſt Means of bringing the War, in which we are engaged, to ſuch a Concluſion, as is the conſtant Object of My Wiſhes, and will moſt effectually provide for the Honour, Happineſs and Security of My Kingdoms.

The SPEECH of the Speaker of the HOUSE OF COMMONS, on Wedneſday, December 2, 1761.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IT has been the firſt Care of your faithful Commons, to take into their Conſideration what your Majeſty moſt affectionately recommended to them from the Throne, namely, the enabling your Majeſty to make that Proviſion for the Queen, in caſe ſhe ſhall ſurvive you, to which her Royal Dignity, and her own Merit, give her the juſteſt Claim.

On ſuch an Occaſion, I ſhould ill diſcharge the Truſt, which has lately been repoſed in me by the Commons, and moſt graciouſly confirmed by your Majeſty, if I omitted to aſſure you, that they feel the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude to your Majeſty, who have made their Happineſs, and that of their Poſterity, your principal Object. Of this your Majeſty has given abundant Proof, by your Royal Nuptials with a Princeſs, whoſe illuſtrious Anceſtors were early Aſſerters of the Civil and Religious Liberties of Mankind, and in Conſequence cloſely attached to your Majeſty's Family; a Princeſs, whom the moſt diſtinguiſhed Virtues, and amiable Endowments, pointed out to your Majeſty's Choice, and made the Partner of the brighteſt Crown in Europe.

I cannot but eſteem it a very ſingular Honour and Happineſs to myſelf, that the firſt Bill, which by Command of the Commons, I preſent to your Majeſty, is a Bill, in which they have, with the greateſt Zeal and Unanimity, endeavoured to teſtify their Duty to your Majeſty, and your Royal Conſort; and that it is no leſs acceptable to your Majeſty, than to your Commons, and all whom they repreſent.

But, SIR, though they have paſſed it with the utmoſt Expedition, which their Forms allow, yet it is a Matter of real Satisfaction to them, that they can entertain the moſt pleaſing and well-founded Hope, that it will be a long Courſe of Years, before it can have any Effect. And the domeſtic Happineſs of the Queen is ſo inſeparably connected with the public Intereſts of your People, that on the Behalf of her Majesty, as well as of every Subject of your Realm, your faithful Commons will never ceaſe to implore the Almighty, that he will be pleaſed to diſtinguiſh this Nation by his Divine Favour and Protection, in prolonging your Majeſty's happy Reign beyond an ordinary Date; and that, if ever the Proviſion of this Bill ſhall become effectual, it may be lamented only by their Poſterity.

The Bill, SIR, which I have in my Hand, is intituled, An Act for enabling His Majeſty to make Proviſion for ſupporting the Royal Dignity of the Queen in caſe She ſhall ſurvive His Majeſty.

To which your Commons, with all Humility, beſeech your Majeſty's Royal Aſſent."

[When his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers to give his Aſſent to the foregoing Bill, her Majeſty followed with her uſual Attendants, and being ſeated on his Right Hand, in the Chair of State, as ſoon as his Majeſty had given his Aſſent, ſhe roſe up and paid him Obeiſance.]

The Amiable Gabrielle, a French Privateer of St. Jean de Luz, of 14 Guns and 108 Men, is taken by his Majeſty's Frigate Eſcorte, and brought into Plymouth. This Privateer had taken, during this Cruize, the following Veſſels, viz. Liverpool, Beans, of and from Liverpool for Gibraltar; Prince Edward, White, of Boſton, from Charles Town, for London; Mercury, Clarkſon, of and from New-York, for London; Betſy, Brochy, of Ramſgate, from Maryland, for London; and the Dove, of and for Liverpool, from Virginia, which was ranſomed for 250 l. alſo a Storeſhip for Quebec, a Snow for Virginia, and another Ship unknown; two of which laſt were ranſomed. The Hoſtages were on board the Privateer when the Eſcorte firſt chaſed her; but the French obliged them to go into a Boat, and, being near Shore, carried them off. The Priſoners ſay, there are now from Bayonne near Twenty Privateers, ſome of which have 20 and 24 Guns.

The 70,000 new Guineas, which were delivered laſt Wedneſday at the Mint, will be paid at the Bank for the next Dividends.

An Officer of one of his Majeſty's Ships, writes to a Friend from Plymouth, Nov. 15, "We have been in a Manner buried off Breſt for theſe 14 Weeks paſt, without varying the Scene in the leaſt. In my Life I never paſt three Months ſo diſagreeably. We have not ſeen the Face of a Frenchman all the Cruize; and we are ſuch odd Kind of Folk, that we would much rather ſee our Enemies than our Friends. The Day before we left the Fleet, our Frigates arrived from Breſt, who informed us, there were ſeven Sail of French Ships in the Road there, ready to come out, five of the Line, and two Frigates; but I ſuppoſe we may wait long enough before they do. All our People are very ſorry for Mr. P--- being out. He was the Man we wanted; and Mr. P. and a Spaniſh War, would do for Old-England."

By an Extract of a Letter from Captain John Thompſon, Maſter of the Mary and Anne, bound from Malaga to Briſtol, we learn, that on his Paſſage he was attacked by the Duke de Noailles, of 16 Guns, in Sight of ſeven Spaniſh Men of War of the Line, full of Soldiers. The Spaniſh Admiral fired at the Privateer, and ſilenced her; and told Captain Thompſon, after they had both brought to, he might ſafely proceed, as the Admiral would carry the Frenchman under his Stern for two Days.

We are well aſſured that eight Millions out of the twelve to be raiſed, are already ſubſcribed.

We hear the Subſcribers are to have Four per Cent. for 95*l.* for 19 Years, a Five Pound Ticket to make it Par, and One per Cent. Long Annuity, to make it up Five per Cent.

On Sunday laſt, as a Couple were marrying in the Pariſh of St. Dunſtan in the Weſt, the Bridegroom, a Journeyman Carpenter, after repeating the Words, With this Ring I thee wed, ſhook his Hand at the Bride, and added, And with this fiſt I'll beat thy Head. The Clergyman upon this ſtopt, and reproved him ſeverely for his irreverent Behaviour; but the Man making a Submiſſion, and declaring he meant no Harm, and ſpoke it only for the Sake of the Rhyme, the Miniſter went on with the Ceremony.

ST. JOHN's (in Antigua) January 13.

About 370 Negroes ſailed from hence on Monday laſt, to ſerve in the Expedition.

Yeſterday the Fleet from London and Madeira appeared off the South Side of this Iſland, under Convoy of His Majeſty's Ship the Deptford, Captain Digges; on board which Ship was his Excellency WILLIAM HENRY LITTELTON, Eſq; Governor of Jamaica. A great Quantity of Naval and Ordnance Stores for His Majeſty's Yard at Engliſh Harbour were in the Fleet, as well as ſeveral Merchant Ships for this and the other Leeward Iſlands. Captain Ogle in a Ship for St. Kitts, and Captain Johnſton in another for this Place, run foul of each other in the Channel, and, it is feared, were both loſt.

His Majeſty's Sloop Antigua, Lemuel Shuldham, Eſq; Commander, took a French Privateer of 12 Guns, on New-Years-Day, after a pretty ſmart Action, in which the Antigua had two Men badly wounded. The Virgin Sloop chaced with the Antigua, but was three Miles aſtern at the Time the Privateer ſtruck.—The French Captain ſaid moſt of the Martinico Privateers were gone down to St. Domingo; and that he had been out three Weeks, but had taken nothing but a Schooner from the Northward for Monſerrat.

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) January 9.

Laſt Saturday the Little Carpenter, and the other Cherokees who came with him, to ratify the Treaty lately concluded between this Government and that People, returned for their Country—whether ſatisfied or not is uncertain; but the Neceſſaries given them it is ſuppoſed did not fully anſwer their Hopes or Occaſions: They were told, by his Excellency's Order, that they were not meant or given as Preſents, which, by the Treaty, at this Juncture, they had not the leaſt Reaſon to expect; what was ordered them, was from a Principle of Humanity, in Conſideration of the Severity of the Seaſon. A ſmall Quantity of Powder and Ball was, after repeated Applications, given them, as Neceſſaries alſo; for it was affirmed, that without it, it would be impoſſible for them to ſubſiſt after they ſhould leave the Settlements.

ANNAPOLIS, March 4.

Late on Tueſday Night laſt Week, or rather on Wedneſday Morning, it being very dark, as Daniel Wheeler, Overſeer of Mrs. Wootton's Plantation, was going from a Tavern in Queen-Anne Town, in Prince-George's County, he miſs'd his Way, and fell down Head foremoſt into a dreadful Gully there, where it is about 25 Feet, almoſt perpendicular, and never ſtirr'd after. He was a Widower, and has left Ten Children.
